

Leading Teams: A Situational Approach

One-Day Workshop | Singapore | May 15, 2020

Managing Collaboration

Though teamwork is one of the most common concepts in businesses today, it is often the most elusive. Teams that lack effective leadership often struggle to work cooperatively with each other and adapt to the variety of personalities, interpretations, opinions and varying skills of other team members. Teams that can successfully master true collaboration, however, are the ultimate competitive advantage.

Leading Teams: A Situational Approach leverages understanding of situational approaches to leadership to explore the specific skills that leaders need to transform diverse groups of individuals into cohesive units. Through a variety of case studies video simulations, group discussions and skill-building activities, participants learn to maximize the performance potential of each team member while building trust, boosting creativity and improving communication.

Objectives

Upon completion of this workshop, participants should be able to:

- Describe the dynamics experienced in group and team environments.
- Create and orchestrate team synergy through the application of a situational approach to team leadership.
- Identify performance levels for both individuals and teams.
- Diagnose and address exceptions to the team's performance level.

Target Audience

- Leaders responsible for teams or groups of employees
- Individual contributors who lead teams for specific projects
